HIGHLAND BOOK FAIR

Our annual fall book fair will be October 3, 4, 8, & 9. There is no school on October 5. It will be open from 8:00 am-3:00 pm. Come visit and pick out some great books to buy!

A COUPLE THINGS TO REMEMBER

- Please put names on coats, lunchboxes, backpacks, etc.
- If you bring your child to school, they cannot be on the school grounds before 8:00 am. There is no supervision.
- Please check in the office if you are visiting your child during the day.

We would like to welcome some new staff to our PACK family....

Mrs. Sumpter—2nd Grade

"I have lived in the valley for 6 years after moving from Alaska. I have 3 kids who go to school in Asotin and enjoy spending time with them playing sports, boating and camping. My class is working on building their "reading to self" and writing personal narratives stamina.

Mrs. Mayes—Kindergarten

Tiffany Mayes is our new kindergarten teacher and this is her first year teaching! She recently graduated from the University of Idaho (Go Vandals!) and was a long term substitute teacher in Moscow. She currently lives in Moscow with her husband and three year old daughter and commutes to Clarkston every day to teach. She is so excited to be teaching kindergarten and has loved getting to know her wonderful students so far this year.

Emilee Lohman—Social Worker

Hello, my name is Emilee Lohman. I recently graduated from Eastern Washington University with my Master's in Social Work. I have always had a passion for working with kids and being in the education system. My goal is to make sure students are being successful and have opportunities to grow and learn. Additionally, helping the family system be successful is a goal as well. I am happy to be a part of the Highland Husky family and can't wait to meet all the kiddo's and families.

Mrs. Fiorenza— Band

"I've been teaching band and music since 1999. I spent most of those years teaching in Boise, ID and most recently in Cottonwood, ID. I live in Lewiston with my two sons and enjoy spending time with them and all of the pets! I'm excited to be part of Highland this year!"
